

3rd Annual Educational Seminar

'Negotiating the Maze of Myeloma Management'

Friday 31st August 2018, 8.50am - 4.30pm

(Registration from 8.30 am)

Royal Adelaide Hospital

Lecture Theatres 8D 271- 8D 272 (Robson Theatre)

Royal Adelaide Hospital, Port Road, ADELAIDE SA 5000

Target audience: Nurses, allied health, pharmacy & registrars with an interest in myeloma.

Program includes: Plasma cell dyscrasias and the BM environment; Disease related effects & supportive measures; Treatment related effects: cardiac & pulmonary focus; Myeloma and Related Disease Registry: Real world outcomes; Improving patient outcomes: Multidisciplinary panel discussion; Optimising upfront treatment for MM; Optimising treatment at relapse; HSANZ Myeloma Special Practice Network.

Speakers include: Prof Andrew Spencer, Haematologist; Dr Cindy Lee, Haematologist; Dr Kate Van Dyke, PhD Myeloma Research Laboratory; Jacqueline Jagger, NP; Tracy King, Myeloma CNC; Jo Gardiner, Myeloma Support Nurse; Dr Peter Hallett, Clin. Psychologist; Alicia Hopper, CN Chemo@Home

Meeting App: myeNURSE

Details / login provided after registration

No cost to attend, registration essential at:

Jodie Wood Haematology CNC, Flinders Medical Centre

Jodie.wood@sa.gov.au

Tel: 08 8204 7401

Limited no. of Travel Grants available, please contact Tracy King:

Tracy.king1@health.nsw.gov.au

Kindly supported by: Amgen, Celgene, Janssen, Takeda